WELCOME TO ELLNORA

Ellnora Krannert—who along with her husband, Herman, helped to found Krannert Center through extraordinary generosity—imagined an inviting place where inclusivity and excellence could merge in a celebration of the life-affirming power of the arts. Named in her honor, Krannert Center's biennial ELLNORA | The Guitar Festival has become "one of the world's most forward-thinking guitar festivals," presenting a diverse array of the globe's greatest guitarists across genres and generations (Fretboard Journal). Come explore the many joys that await in the 2017 lineup!

ABOUT KRANNERT CENTER

A unit of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Krannert Center for the Performing Arts is dedicated to the advancement of education, research, and public engagement through the pursuit of excellence and innovation in the performing arts.

Krannert Center encompasses:

- five indoor stages, including Foellinger Great Hall—which boasts one of the world’s premier acoustic environments—Tryon Festival Theatre, Colwell Playhouse, Studio Theatre, and the Lobby’s Stage 5, and the outdoor Amphitheatre
- a world-renowned guest artist series featuring diverse genres and cultural legacies, newly discovered artists of promise to iconic masters, and points of origin from around the world
- deeply collaborative work with the College of Fine + Applied Arts academic units of Illinois Theatre; School of Music, including Lyric Theatre @ Illinois; and Dance at Illinois
- full production facilities including costume, prop, lighting, audio, and scenery shops; classrooms, rehearsal spaces, studios, and offices

- an expansive, elegant, and inviting Lobby which offers a cafe, bar, and showcase/shop, and which serves as an ongoing venue for creative experiences
- a staff of 80 dedicated professionals who support over 300 performances each year, while educating students in the work of the arts
- more than 100 engagement activities—masterclasses, workshops, discussions, and more—produced each year through the Center’s Creative Intersections initiative

... and more!

WHO IS ELLNORA?

Ellnora Krannert was an open-hearted woman with a vision: an inviting space where everyone was welcome and could naturally meet and merge by way of the arts. Her revolutionary philosophy was instrumental in the design of Krannert Center, and since 1969 it has been our guiding principle in bringing a global community together to share life-affirming experiences—including festivals packed with guitar goodness from around the planet.
