

ELLNORA

THE GUITAR FESTIVAL

SEP 17-18, 2021

#KrannertCenter #ELLNORA

College of Fine &
Applied Arts
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

KRANNERT CENTER JOYFULLY WELCOMES YOU TO ELLNORA | THE GUITAR FESTIVAL,

a multi-style, multi-generational celebration of the guitar and its many relations. Health considerations for audience members, volunteers, staff members, artists, and all who use the Center have been foremost in planning for this year's festival, which will take place on a smaller scale than previous years while featuring ELLNORA's hallmark level and diversity of artistry. We invite you to read our Visitor Code of Conduct at KrannertCenter.com/visitor-code-conduct, and we appreciate your participation in creating a welcoming, inspiring environment for all. Thank you!

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The University of Illinois System carries out its mission in its namesake state, which includes the traditional territory of the Peoria, Kaskaskia, Piankashaw, Wea, Miami, Mascoutin, Odawa, Sauk, Mesquaki, Kickapoo, Potawatomi, Ojibwe, Menominee, Ho-Chunk, and Chickasaw Nations. These lands continue to carry the stories of these Nations and their struggles for survival and identity.

As a land-grant institution, the University of Illinois has a particular responsibility to acknowledge the peoples of these lands, as well as the histories of dispossession that have allowed for the growth of this institution for the past 150 years. We are also obligated to reflect on and actively address these histories and the role that this university has played in shaping them. This acknowledgement and the centering of Native peoples is a start as we move forward for the next 150 years.

Krannert Center affirms the commitment by the university to move beyond these statements, toward building deeper relationships and taking actions that uphold and preserve Indigenous rights and cultural equity. As we gather to experience these performances, we have an opportunity to reflect on the ways that systems of oppression have shaped our society. We can work together to create systems that support human dignity, establish equity, strengthen cross-cultural relationships, and draw upon the creative capacity of all people that make up this community, state, nation, and world.

GENERAL INFORMATION

At this time, face coverings are required in indoor university spaces such as Krannert Center. As part of the University of Illinois, Krannert Center follows U of I guidelines regarding face coverings and other COVID-19 safety protocols. People who are NOT fully vaccinated are required to wear a face covering outdoors when they cannot practice social distancing. Masks are available at the Ticket Office/ Patron Services counter in the Lobby. Anyone who does not comply with any COVID-19-related health protocol will be required to leave the Center.

Tickets are sold online only at KrannertCenter.com as mobile or print-at-home tickets and are not available for purchase by phone or at the Ticket Office counter. If you have any questions or would like assistance with accessibility or any other aspect of your Krannert Center visit, please feel welcome to contact the Ticket Office at kran-tix@illinois.edu, 217.333.6280, or in person at the Ticket Office counter, 10am through the last intermission of the evening on both Friday and Saturday.

Located in the southwest area of the Lobby, the ELLNORA store features artist and festival merchandise.

Customize your ELLNORA volume settings—earplugs are available in front of each theatre, at the ELLNORA store, at the Patron Services desk, or from any usher.

The photos and videos that are taken at ELLNORA by official photographers may be used in the future for non-commercial purposes.

If you are in need of lost and found, please visit the Ticket Office. We will do our best to reunite object and owner!

Many ELLNORA artists have requested limited personal contact and heightened security for COVID-19 and personal security reasons.

To respect this request, we will experience fewer personal, impromptu interactions with artists in the lobby than in past festivals. Thank you for your understanding.
